ROUSE HOUSE ENTERTAINMENT AND MIGHTY MOORE ENTERTAINMENT TEAM UP WITH POWER & PURPOSE PRODUCTIONS ON SHORT FILM ABOUT MENTAL ILLNESS ENTITLED QUEEN VICTORIA'S WEDDING

Women-Owned Entertainment Companies Partner with Non-Profit on Final Round of Funding for Short Film, Queen Victoria's Wedding, About a Mother's Battle with Mental Illness While Raising a Teenage Daughter

LOS ANGELES, CA (August 25, 2009) – BJ Rouse of Rouse House Entertainment and Shenita Moore of Mighty Moore Entertainment have partnered with Tann Moore of non-profit Power and Purpose Productions Inc. in order to accept tax deductible donations for their Short Film "Queen Victoria's Wedding." The Short is an emotive tale about mental illness, featuring television and movie actor Natalie Desselle Reid ("B.A.P.S.," "Eve") with a special appearance by screenwriter, director and film producer, Antwone Fisher ("Antwone Fisher," "ATL").

"To have Power & Purpose Productions on board for Queen Victoria's Wedding is another incredible energy boost for our cast," says Wedding executive producer and screenwriter, BJ Rouse. "Tann and her team's mission is in direct alignment with our goals to help the community and we welcome her aboard." Shenita Moore, of Mighty Moore Entertainment and Wedding producer says, "BJ and I look forward to working with Tann and her invaluable input as we bring this important work to communities throughout the United States." Together these women are looking to raise $2,500 to complete production on Wedding and set cross-country screening dates.

Those wishing to contribute to Queen Victoria's Wedding online using a checking account, credit card, debit card or PayPal account can click on this link: Donate to Queen Victoria's Wedding. Checks and money order donations should be mailed to: Power and Purpose Productions, Inc., 27615 N. Spencer Court, No. 202, Canyon Country, California, 91387. All donations will be used to complete the Short and screen it in major cities across the United States.

Corporate sponsors and supporters are vital to completing this extraordinary Short. "We created the online account for accepting donations so that we can take this mental health awareness piece to those it can help," says Moore. The emotive story of Queen Victoria's (Reid) battle with mental illness while caring for a teenage daughter (Nieko Mann, "Friday Night Lights") was specifically written as a social awareness module to assist in educating the Black community of the affects of mental illness if left untreated.

Reid's Wedding co-stars include Monica Calhoun ("The Best Man"), Dwayne Adway ("Bad As I Wanna Be: The Dennis Rodman Story"), Shenita Moore ("Grey's Anatomy"), singer/actress Carmen Twillie ("Six Feet Under"), Tyreese Burnett ("Drumline"), Poetri ("House of Payne"), Kendra C. Johnson ("Phat Girlz") and newcomer Todd Moore.
